

CSL BEHRING'S GETTIN' IN THE GAME JUNIOR NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

September 28-30 ~ Phoenix, Arizona

About Junior National Championships (JNC)

CSL Behring would like to officially invite our chapter to participate in the 2018 Gettin' in the Game Junior National Championship, our 17th annual national baseball and golf competitions. CSL is inviting all bleeding disorder chapter's throughout the United States to nominate 2 participants for golf, baseball, or swimming to represent them in the national competition. NHF Colorado wants YOU to represent Colorado!

During the program, educational sessions will be available for parents and caregivers, and nominees will have the opportunity to:

- ★ Participate in a clinic where they will learn the fundamentals baseball, golf, or swimming and enhance their skills in either sport;
- ★ Learn about the importance of physical fitness in managing a bleeding disorder and receive instructions on proper stretching techniques and good athletic form;
- ★ Show off their baseball, golf, or swimming abilities in a national competition with fellow participants from around the country;
- ★ Connect and build relationships with fellow members of the bleeding disorder community.

Below is a description of the different skill building activities offered at JNC

- Golf: Gettin' in the Game pro golfer Perry Parker will host a series of skill-building activities, such as putting, chipping, and driving, at the Sheraton Wild Horse Pass.
- Baseball: Gettin' in the Game athletes Jesse Schrader and Peter Dyson will host a series of skill-building activities, such as pitching, hitting, and fielding, at the Sports Arena in Arizona.
- Swimming: Gettin' in the Game athlete Tim Grams will host a series of skill-building activities, such as power and efficiency, sprint, controlled breathing activities, and streamline at the Aquatic Complex
